4. WHERE WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA

All your personal information covered by this policy will be stored in the EU. We will not transfer your information outside the European Union unless we are permitted to do so by law and we will inform you about such transfer before it is done.

Please note that our regular mailings are facilitated through 'MailChimp' which may process this data in the United States. 'MailChimp' participates in and has certified its compliance with the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield Framework. You have the right to unsubscribe from such mailings at any time.

5. RETENTION OF DATA

We will keep the personal information covered by this policy for the periods of time specified in our DATA RETENTION POLICY and at the end of the applicable retention periods we will safely and securely delete it.

6. YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO YOUR DATA

You have a number of rights under data protection law. These include:

- The right to access your personal data and to obtain certain information about it
- The right to rectify the data if it is inaccurate
- In some circumstances, such as when the data is no longer required or if the use of the data has no legal justification, the right to have that data erased
- In limited circumstances, the right to object to our handling of the data
- In limited circumstances, the right to restrict the handling of your data

More details about how these rights apply can be found in our Data Protection Policy which can be accessed from <http://www.scba.org.uk/legal-information.html>

You also have the right to withdraw your consent at any time when we rely on consent as a legal ground to justify our handling of your personal data. This would not affect the lawfulness of anything done before consent is withdrawn but it would stop us from continuing to use the relevant information.

You can exercise your rights or obtain more information about them by contacting our Data Protection Officer [Email: dataprotection@SCBA.org.uk or ring 01235 517673]

7. COMPLAINTS TO THE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER

You have a right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Officer (ICO) about the way in which we collect and handle your personal data. Complaints to the ICO can be made on the ICO's website <https://ico.org.uk/>.

8. THIRD PARTY WEBSITES

Our website may refer or contain links to other websites. Please note that this privacy notice does not apply to information collected through these websites. These third party websites should have their own privacy policies which describe how they might collect your data and use it.

We are not responsible for these third party websites or the information which they might collect and, therefore, you are encouraged to view their policies before browsing through third party websites or providing them with information.

9. COOKIES

Like most other websites, our website uses cookies.

Cookies are small files which websites store on your computer and which contain various types of information about your visit to a website. They are not viruses or malicious software but they are generally aimed at providing you with a good experience when browsing a site by, for example, remembering your preferences so that you do not need to reset them every time you visit the website.

Although cookies do not normally contain information about you personally they can record information about how you browse the internet. They can therefore be used by websites to advertise goods and services which, based on your browsing history, are similar to goods and services which you have previously searched online. This is why some users reject or delete cookies.

Cookies normally expire after a length of time which can vary from a few minutes to more than a year. Some cookies are 'session cookies' which are deleted when you close your internet browser or after a period of inactivity. Others are 'persistent cookies' which remain on your computer until their expiration date.

Please contact us if you would like more information about the cookies we are currently using

We do not store cookies on your computer without your consent, unless they have the sole purpose of carrying out the transmission of communications or they are strictly necessary for providing an online service.

You may restrict or block cookies which are set by any website through your browser settings. Your browser settings also allow you to clear your browsing history and delete cookies. Information about how you can do this can be found on this link <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/online/cookies>. Mobile devices may have their own settings and you need to refer to the manual of the device.

Please note that restricting or disabling cookies may impact the functioning of parts of our website.
